

1261 Seward-Meridian Pkwy Ste M
Wasilla, AK 99654
907.376.9091 phone
907.376.9094 fax

Rules For Divorcing Parents

Parents should not talk bad about the other parent, and should not allow others.

Parents should not tell kids to keep secrets from the other parent.

Parents should not use their kids as messengers between each other.

Parents should not talk to their kids about adult issues such as court, child support, adult relationships etc.

Parents should remember to pick up their kids for visits/transitions.

Parents should give their kids some time to adjust to the divorce before entering a new relationship.

Parents should not fight within hearing distance or eyesight of kids.

Parent should allow their kids to call the other parent.

Parents should not use kids to express their anger at the other parent (sending kids with dirty, old, or not enough clothes).

Parents should keep their promises.